

Reject NAB's petition 04-160. I pay for my monthly programming for XM radio and it is vastly superior to the FM channels in my area. The government and the NAB has absolutely no right to dictate what services I want and should receive through XM radio.